

LAND SUITABILITY MAPPING PROCESS

Step 1

- Identify sensitive social, cultural, and environmental features that should be avoided if possible
- The identified features are shown in shades of gray on this map
- Areas with multiple features appear darker in color
- The darker the color, the more difficult it is to off-set effects to those features
- Areas shown in black should be avoided if possible